TAKE ON A TRULY UNIQUE ITALIAN CYCLING EVENT!

The Giro delle Dolomiti is both a competitive cycling event and beautiful, leisurely ride through some of the best Italian scenery you can find. It's up to you how you want to ride it. The competitive element is that each day is a 'stage' with a beginning and end, however each stage is 'neutralized', meaning that only small sections are timed (usually the climbs). If you want to contest the climbs/timed sections you can. If you want to just ride at your own pace and enjoy the scenery you can do that too. It's totally up to you!

You will stay in Bolzano for the whole week so there is no need to change hotels. The event begins each day from Bolzano, and then takes you out into different areas of the South Tyrol region. You will experience the beauty and challenging riding that South Tyrol has to offer. Most years, the Giro delle Dolomiti includes many of the climbs from the famous Maratona dles Dolomites - Enel and in 2018, it included a trip out to take on the mighty Stelvio!

The Giro delle Dolomiti has six stages, spread over seven days, with one rest day in the middle. Each stage is largely neutralised with the stage is largely coordinated with the 600 strong peloton riding together and soaking in scenery.

However, each stage includes a timed segment and these vary in distance and difficulty but normally include a famous local climb! The rider with the lowest cumulative time on the final day is crowned the General Classification winner. Its this format of "guided riding" with a daily dose of the competitive section that makes the Giro delle Dolomiti a 'must do' event in 2019.

Spaces are limited so please get in touch. We recommend the full 8 night Tour however we can also put together a 3 Stage option for this event if you don't have the time off work for the whole week.
